

Tulane's STEM-designated MFIN program at Freeman integrates experiential learning to ensure that students will know how to apply the principles learned in class and be prepared for a fulfilling position as a finance professional within many industries.

CLASS PROFILE

100%
Employed at 6 Months¹

$77,901²
Average Base Salary

Program Size: 16 graduates

Average Years
Work Experience: < 1 year

Average Incoming GPA: 3.2

Average GMAT Score: 630³

Average GRE Quant Score: 164³

EMPLOYMENT BY REGION⁴

EMPLOYMENT BY INDUSTRY⁵

CAREER TITLES EARNED

- Analyst - Financial Rotational Program
- Associate
- Corporate Account Manager
- Credit Analyst
- Financial Planning and Analysis Associate
- Revenue Analyst
- Valuation Analyst
- Tax Consultant & Real Estate Broker
- Trader

NOTABLE EMPLOYERS HIRING FREEMAN GRADUATES⁶

¹ Based on knowledge rate of 81%. 6.26% returned to previous job and 29% went on to further continuing education.

² 37.5% of students who reported employment also provided salary.

³ GRE/GMAT scores are not required for admission. Total presented reflects the average for students who supplied a GRE/GMAT score.

⁴ Total world region percentage adds up to 101 due to rounding.

⁵ Total industry percentage adds up to 102 due to rounding.

⁶ Company list is built off of a sampling from both classes of 2024 and 2025.